

Be part of the day-to-day business management and strategic planning for JFK Redevelopment. The Aviation Department of the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey is currently seeking a Senior Program Manager, Business Development to manage all current and future terminal developments initiatives for one of the busiest airport systems.

You Will:

Oversee day-to-day business management and strategic planning for JFK Redevelopment advancing efforts for terminal development coordination, integration management, and Board Authorizations relative to the 21st Century Vision.

To Qualify:

- Bachelor's Degree
- 10 years+ progressive project, program and policy management experience in concurrent, complex, transportation infrastructure and technology projects
- Experience with:
 - Policies and procedures related to project management systems, administration, the capital authorization and agenda review processes and document control
 - Developing program and project strategies
 - Airline industry business and operating practices
 - Implementation of Aviation Business and Capital Plan including the budgeting process

Apply: <http://bit.ly/2uJTQaC>