

Vacancy announcement ANM-ARP-10-610-17749 is being re-announced. To be considered you must apply to vacancy announcement number ANM-ARP-10-610-18045.

The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) is the element of the U.S. government with primary responsibility for the safety of civil aviation.

The FAA develops standards for airport design, development, construction, maintenance, operation and safety, and manages the Airport Certification Program. It also administers programs pertaining to airport grants, operational safety, national airport planning, environmental and social requirements, and passenger facility charges.

Environmental Protection Specialist- This position has the duties of which involve (1) providing advice and assistance to state and local government agencies on matters relating to the development, execution, and maintenance of adequate environmental protection plans and programs, and the development and review of related grant proposals; (2) reviewing, analyzing, and recommending modifications where necessary, of plans developed by states to implement various provisions of Federal environmental standards; (3) developing and analyzing data and preparing reports relating to the responsiveness of implementation plans for state environmental protection programs, the type and level of local and regional environmental planning, and similar activities; (4) reviewing, analyzing, and coordinating preparation of, or preparing comments on environmental impact statements.

Salary for this position starts at $89,652, with an excellent benefits package. For more information, or to apply, go to <http://www.faa.gov/jobs> and search for announcement ANM-ARP-10-610-18045. All applications must be submitted via our website.